Notes to Financial Statement

Note 1: Nature of Operations and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of Operations

MMA Securities, Inc. (Company), a wholly owned subsidiary of Mennonite Mutual Aid, Inc. (MMA), operates as a revenue-sharing broker dealer in order to receive gross dealer (wholesale) concessions directly from ProEquities, Inc. (an unrelated broker dealer) and load retention fees from MMA Praxis Mutual Funds.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of this financial statement in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statement. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash

The financial institution holding the Company's cash accounts is participating in the FDIC's Transaction Account Guarantee Program. Under that program, through December 31, 2009, all noninterest-bearing transaction accounts are fully guaranteed by the FDIC for the entire amount in the account.

Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable consist mainly of commissions earned in December from ProEquities, Inc. Accounts receivable are generally received within 30 days of the time earned. The Company believes all outstanding amounts are fully collectible and has, therefore, not established an allowance for doubtful accounts.

Income Taxes

The Company files consolidated federal and state income tax returns with MMA. The Company pays to MMA, or is reimbursed by MMA, based on the amount of taxes or benefits determined as if the Company filed separate returns, as computed on a regular tax basis. There are currently no differences between the financial statement and tax bases of assets and liabilities.

In accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Staff Position No. FIN 48-3, the Company has elected to defer the effective date of FASB Interpretation No. 48 (FIN 48), Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes, until its year ending December 31, 2009. The Company has continued to account for any uncertain tax positions in accordance with literature that was authoritative immediately prior to the effective date of FIN 48, such as FASB Statement No. 109, Accounting for Income Taxes, and FASB Statement No. 5, Accounting for Contingencies.

Note 2: Transactions With Affiliates

The Company is a member of an affiliated group of organizations served by MMA InSource, LLC and MMA, who provide administrative, management and equipment services based on an allocation of costs incurred. The building facilities are provided by Mennonite Church Buildings, Inc., a member of the affiliated group. Rent is based on space usage.

The Company has an agreement with MMA ComSource, LLC (ComSource) and Menno Insurance Service, Inc. (MIS), both of which are affiliates, whereby ComSource and MIS provide distribution and sales services for licensed registered representatives for the purposes of selling securities offered through ProEquities, Inc.

Note 3: Regulatory Requirements

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, may not exceed 15 to 1. In addition, equity capital may not be withdrawn if the resulting net capital ratio would exceed 10 to 1. At December 31, 2008, the Company had net capital of $30,225 which exceeded the minimum required amount by $22,628, and the Company's ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was 3.77 to 1.

Note 4: Subsequent Event

As of December 31, 2008, the Company was a wholly owned subsidiary of MMA. Effective January 1, 2009, MMA and various related organizations under common control and management restructured in order to organize all taxable corporations under a single holding company. Through this restructuring, the Company became a wholly owned subsidiary of MMA Holdings, Inc. (MMAH) which is a wholly owned subsidiary of Mennonite Mutual Aid Association. As part of this restructuring, the Company entered into a new tax-sharing agreement with MMAH and various other subsidiaries of MMAH. The restructuring had no significant effect on the operations of the Company.
